NATURE OF THE CASE

1. VENUE

4. Venue is proper in this district in that Plaintiffs' offices are located in this district.

PARTIES

5. At all times relevant herein the Plaintiffs were jointly administered, multi-employer, Taft-Hartley Benefit Funds administered by trustees designated by a union and by employers, established and maintained pursuant to section 302(c)(5) of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. §186(c)(5). 6. 7. Upon information and belief defendant is a domestic corporation incorporated under laws of the State of New York with a principal place of business located at 11 Pineland

Court, Dix Hills, NY 11746.

8. The defendant is an employer within the meaning of section 3(5) of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §1002 (5).

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

9. Defendant was bound at all relevant times by a collective bargaining agreement with the Union, which, by its terms, became effective July 1, 2001. Said Agreement provides, inter alia, that the defendant shall furnish its books and payroll records when requested by the Benefit Funds for the purpose of conducting an audit to ensure compliance with required benefit fund contributions and for the submission of disputes to final, binding arbitration.

10. A dispute arose during the period of the Agreement between the parties when the Employer failed to comply with the Benefit Funds' demands to furnish its books and records for the purpose of conducting an audit.

11. Pursuant to the arbitration clause in the Agreement, the dispute was submitted to arbitration to Robert Herzog, the duly designated impartial arbitrator.

12. Thereafter, upon due notice to all parties, the arbitrator duly held a hearing and rendered his award, in writing, dated March 25, 2008 determining said dispute. Upon information and belief, a copy of the award was delivered to the defendant (A copy of the award is annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" and made part hereof).

13. The arbitrator found that defendant had failed to comply with the Agreement as it relates to paying fringe benefit monies and directed it to furnish the Plaintiffs with any and all books and records, for the period of January 1, 2006 through March 25, 2008 including but not limited to, the cash disbursement section of the cash book, general ledger, job location records, daily time records and all certified payrolls.

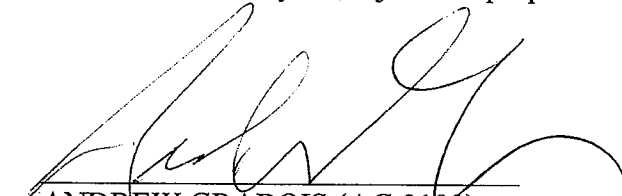

14. The arbitrator also found that defendant was required to pay the funds a sum of $2,350.00 pursuant to the Agreement, representing costs incurred in the arbitration.

15. The defendant has failed to abide by the award.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment against defendant as follows:

1. For an order confirming the arbitration award in all respects;
2. For entry of judgment in favor of the Plaintiffs ordering defendant and its officers to make available to the Plaintiffs or authorized representatives any and all books and records deemed necessary to conduct an audit including, but not limited to, the cash disbursement section of the cash book, general ledger, job location records, daily time records and all certified payrolls for the period January 1, 2006 through March 25, 2008.
3. For entry of judgment in favor of the Benefit Funds and against Superior Interiors, Inc. ordering defendant to pay the Benefit Funds a total sum of $2,350.00 with interest to accrue at the rate of 10% from the date of the award, pursuant to the arbitrator's award.
4. For attorneys' fees and costs of this action;
5. For such other and further relief as this court may deem just and proper.

SUPERIOR INTERIORS INCORPORATED
(Employer)

-----X
BEFORE: Robert Herzog, Esq.

Superior Interiors Incorporated (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer") and the District Council of New York City and Vicinity of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, are parties to a Collective Bargaining Agreement, dated July 01, 2001.
Article XIX of the Collective Bargaining Agreement provides that the Collective Bargaining Agreement "shall continue until June 30, 2006 and shall be renewed automatically for one year intervals thereafter unless notice to the other... no more than ninety (90) days nor less than sixty (60) days before the contract expiration that such party seeks to negotiate a new contract or modify or amend this Agreement through negotiations." The Collective Bargaining Agreement also provides for arbitration of disputes before the undersigned Arbitrator as Impartial Arbitrator, and in which the Employer has therein agreed, for the duration of the agreement and renewals, to pay contributions toward employee benefit funds (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Funds"). The Petitioners, as beneficiaries of the Collective Bargaining Agreement and renewals, have standing before the Arbitrator. In accordance therewith, the Petitioners, by a January 29, 2008 Notice of Intention to Arbitrate, demanded arbitration. The Petitioners alleged the Employer failed to permit the Funds to conduct an audit of its books and records for the period of January 1, 2006 through to date to determine whether it is in compliance with its obligation to contribute to the Funds. A Notice of Hearing dated January 30, 2008 advised the Employer and the Petitioners that the arbitration hearing was scheduled for February 19, 2008.

The Notice of Hearing was sent to the Employer by regular and certified mail. A United States Postal Service Certified Mail Return Receipt evidences delivery of the Notice of Hearing to the Employer.

On February 19, 2008, at the place and time designated by the aforesaid Notice of Hearing, Steven Kasarda, Esq. appeared on behalf of the Petitioners. No appearance on behalf of the Employer was made. Also, no written, mutually agreed upon waiver by the parties to adjourn the proceeding, as required by the Collective Bargaining Agreement and renewals, was presented. The arbitration proceeded as a Default Hearing. Full opportunity was afforded the parties present to be heard, to offer evidence, and to examine witnesses. The Petitioners thereupon presented their proofs to the Arbitrator.

The uncontroverted testimony and evidence established that:

- During the January 1, 2006 to date period, the Employer was bound to a Collective Bargaining Agreement and subsequent renewals with the District Council of New York City and Vicinity of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.
- The Collective Bargaining Agreement and renewals obligated the Employer to make certain payments to Fringe Benefit Trust Funds on behalf of all its carpenter employees pursuant to schedules set forth in the Agreement and renewals.
- The Collective Bargaining Agreement and renewals authorized the Funds to conduct an audit of the Employer's books and records in order to verify that all the required contributions were made to each of the aforesaid Fringe Benefit Trust Funds maintained by the Funds.

- In accordance with this auditing provision, an accountant, employed by the Funds, sought to conduct an audit of the Employer's books and records. In violation of this auditing provision, the Employer did not consent to an audit of the Employer's books and records.

AWARD

Based upon the substantial and credible evidence of the case as a whole:

1. Superior Interiors Incorporated is in violation of the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement and renewals;
2. Superior Interiors Incorporated is ordered to permit and facilitate the Funds conducting an audit of its books and records for the period of January 1, 2006 through to date to determine whether it is in compliance with its obligations to contribute to the Funds;
3. Superior Interiors Incorporated shall pay to the Funds forthwith the Petitioners' counsel's fees, the undersigned Arbitrator's fee, and all associated court costs in the following amounts:

Court Costs	$ 350.00
Attorney's Fee	1,500.00
Arbitrator's Fee	500.00
TOTAL	$2,350.00

4. Superior Interiors Incorporated shall pay to the District Council Carpenters Benefit Funds the aggregate amount of two thousand three hundred fifty dollars ($2,350.00) with interest to accrue at the rate of 10% from the date of this Award.
